

Welcome
Academic Information
To Do
Campus Life
On and Off Campus Living
Pre-Arrival
Orientation

@SUFYTP

ON CAMPUS LIVING

Tweets

Follow

Syracuse FYTP

4h

@SUFYTP

#SUBound students - don't forget to register for Speak About It (mandatory program for new students) speakaboutit.eventbrite.com
Show Summary

Syracuse FYTP 5 Aug

@SUFYTP

Vol 9 of the ReadySet New Student Newsletter was sent to #SUBound students this morning. Check your syr.edu email!

Syracuse FYTP 4 Aug

Tweet to @SUFYTP

ABOUT YOUR ROOM

Once you receive your housing and roommate assignment we recommend that you visit our Facility Information page and take a look at building floor plans, room dimensions, and videos to get a sense of the general size and set-up of your room. Student rooms are furnished with a bed (extra-long twin 36"x80"), dresser, desk, desk chair, and closet or wardrobe for each student.

HOUSING POLICIES

VACATIONS

Residence halls will remain open to campus residents during spring break (March 13–20, 2016). Dining Centers will not be open and other food operations (campus cafes and food courts) will be open on a limited basis during spring break.

CLOSING

You must vacate University housing within 24 hours after your last final exam—no later than May 5, 2016 unless you are participatin[...]

+ Read More

WHAT TO BRING, WHAT NOT TO BRING

Bed area:

- Bed pillows
- Blankets/throws
- Comforter or bed-in-a-bag
- Floor pillows/backrest
- Mattress pad
- Slippers
- Extra-long twin sheets

Desk area:

- Backpack
- Calculator
- Calendar/planner
- Cell phone and charger
- Desk lamp and light bulbs (No halogen)
- Flashlight
- UL- listed grounded power strip with built-in fuse or circuit breaker- NO extension cords are permitted
- Wastebasket

Personal supplies:

- Laundry detergent and laundry basket
- Personal hygiene items
- Prescription and non-prescription medication
- Shower caddy/bucket
- Shower shoes/sandals
- Towels/washcloths

In addition to your regular wardrobe:

- Business casual and professional clothing (i.e. button-down shirts, dress pants, shoes, suit, etc.)
- Heavy winter coat
- Boots (rain/snow)
- Gloves, hat, earmuffs

Also consider:

- Coaxial cable for TV connection
- Laundry drying rack
- Fan

Check with your roommate before you bring:

- Refrigerator (less than 5 cubic feet)
- Microwave (less than 1,000 watts)
- Television
- Video game systems
- High-heat appliances (irons, coffee makers, hot-air popcorn makers, and other similar devices, including Keurigs) are permitted provided they are UL-approved and used in the manner intended

What NOT to Bring:

- Large appliances, including air conditioners (Only refrigerators less than 5 cubic feet and microwaves less than 1,000 watts are permitted)
- Cooking appliances-ovens, hotplates, toasters, toasters ovens, crockpots, grills (including "George Foreman-type" grills), other similar devices
- Space heaters
- Candles, incense, etc.

- Wall mounted TVs (Only free standing TVs are permitted)
- Firearms, weapons, and fireworks
- General purpose extension cords (even UL-approved)
- ALL general purpose extension cords (even UL-approved) are prohibited; only UL-listed grounded power strips with built-in fuse circuit breaker are permitted
- Halogen lamps and multi-headed floor lamps
- Large pieces of furniture
- Pets
- Expensive or irreplaceable collectibles or jewelry.

- Read Less

YOUR ROOMMATE AND HOUSING ASSIGNMENT

Room and roommate assignments are emailed to you on July 15. Your assignment reflects a random placement into one of 14 residential facilities on both our North and South campuses. All new first year students are placed on North Campus while new transfer students are placed into our transfer student community within the South Campus SkyHalls.

We strongly encourage you to contact your[...]

+ Read More

ADVICE FOR ROOMMATES

Both room and roommate assignments for new students are random. We realize that sharing a living space with someone new can create anxiety and stress for some but we're hopeful that you will be able to connect with your new roommate prior to coming to campus to get to know them. You may already have an idea in mind of what you want in a roommate, or you may not know what to expect. R[...]

+ Read More

SHIPPING YOUR STUFF BEFORE YOU ARRIVE

United Parcel Service (UPS) will deliver your items to your residence hall during the opening of the University. Deliveries will be available for pickup starting Wednesday, August 26. Do not ship anything you will need immediately. If you use a package shipping company other than UPS, be advised that they cannot access campus residence halls for delivery until Monday, August 31, due [...]

+ Read More

SHIPPING AND MAILING DURING THE YEAR

Your shipping and mailing address is shown on your housing assignment confirmation. Do not include "Syracuse University" in your mailing address. Note that administrative and academic buildings use the 13244 zip code; residence halls and South Campus apartments use the 13210 zip code.

At the residence halls, your address will be:

Your name
Residence hall and box number
Street address[...]

+ Read More

LINENS AND LAUNDRY

You will need to bring your own bed linens, pillows, and towels to campus. Bed linens, blankets, and towels are also available for purchase at the SU Bookstore.

Clothes washers and dryers are available in all residence halls and are operated by coin or a PLUS account.

The University Bookstore offers a dry cleaning service.

A full-time University housekeeping staff employed by FIXit c[...]

+ Read More

STORAGE

There is no storage in the residence halls or South Campus apartments for the summer or a semester abroad. The University is not responsible for loss or damage of your personal property from these spaces, and strongly encourages you to obtain personal property insurance. Lazybones is the University's official storage company for students.

They will come to your room, pick up your stu[...]

+ Read More

Office of First Year and Transfer
Programs
111 Waverly Avenue
Suite 006
Syracuse, NY 13244

Email: newtosu@syr.edu
Phone: (315) 443-1012
Fax: (315) 443-2295

SU LINKS

SU Home
Current Students
Division of Student Affairs